Your application was selected for review in a process called “Verification”. Verification is a process governed by Federal regulations and is used to ensure that the information applicants report on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is accurate. In this process, SCCC will compare information from your 2020-2021 FAFSA to the documents you provide. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You and at least one parent (if Dependent) must complete, sign and submit this worksheet to the Financial Aid Office. Additional information may be requested. Please monitor your portal for additional requests and important information.
