

Mission Statement

The Center for Lifelong Learning at Sussex County Community College (SCCC) is designed for individuals over 50 who are looking for intellectual stimulation, an opportunity to expand their horizons and who want to be part of a life-long learning community that is full of insight, cultural diversity and wisdom.

COVID Information

The Center for Lifelong Learning at Sussex County Community College is committed to protecting the health and safety of our seniors and staff. In order to continue to offer our senior community access to lifelong learning Programs, the Center will deliver our Programs via Zoom meetings, which will include a call-in telephone number for those seniors who simply want to listen to the Program without the need to participate in the Zoom meeting!

SCCC Senior Citizen Tuition Waiver

Sussex County residents, 65 years and older, are entitled to free tuition and fees for eligible college-level courses.

These conditions apply:

- The class must be eligible for the senior citizen free tuition (some labs, trade and field experience courses will not be eligible).
- Paid enrollment warrants the course being conducted.
- There must be sufficient space available in the class.
- Registration for the course must occur only during the final two business days before the start of the semester. Applicants who opt to register earlier are not eligible for free tuition. Applicants may take the course for college credit or may choose to audit the course.

Applicants must register in person during the specified registration time and present proof of eligibility. Please contact the SCCC Admissions Office at 973-300-2223 with any questions.

Walking-Through History Series: How did the Civil War really start?

The US Civil War has long been thought to have started when Confederate troops fired on Fort Sumter in April of 1861. While this moment still stands as the official start of what would become a devastating four-year long war between the states, the events leading to Fort Sumter were precipitated by an amalgamation of various other events and misunderstandings.

Join Jason Bohem as he walks us through the raid on Harpers Ferry, led by radical abolitionist John Brown and his band of compatriots, which was one of the most impactful and well documented events leading up to the battle at Fort Sumter.

Date: April 29, 2022
