Your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was federally selected for review in a process called “Verification”. Verification is a process governed by Federal regulations and is used to ensure that the information applicants report on the FAFSA is accurate. In this process, SCCC will compare information from your 2022-2023 FAFSA to this completed worksheet and any other documents you provide. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You, and at least one parent if you are a Dependent Student, must complete, sign and submit this worksheet to the SCCC Financial Aid Office. Additional information may be requested.
